Active since 1989, Eurimages was established as a cultural support fund of the Council of Europe. It currently numbers 37 Member States. Eurimages promotes the European audiovisual industry by providing financial support to feature-length fiction, animation and documentary films produced in Europe. In doing so, it encourages co-operation between professionals established in different European countries.

Presented by Iris Cadoux, Eurimage project manager.

Curriculum Vitae:

Iris Cadoux has worked for more than 15 years at Eurimages as a project manager responsible for co-production projects for full-length feature and animation films. She is also in charge of the Distribution programme.
